
Gallipoli Scholarship Fund Incorporated

Annual Financial Report
31 December 2022

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the members of the Gallipoli Scholarship Fund Incorporated

Report on the Financial Report

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial report, being a special purpose financial report of the Gallipoli Scholarship Fund Incorporated, which comprises the Statement of Financial Position as at 31 December 2022 and the Statement of Profit or Loss and Other Comprehensive Income for the year then ended, notes comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information, and the Declaration of Committee Members.

In our opinion the financial report presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Gallipoli Scholarship Fund Incorporated as at 31 December 2022, and its financial performance for the year then ended in accordance with the accounting policies described in Note 1 and the financial reporting requirements of the Fund's constitution.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the Financial Report section of our report. We are independent of the Entity in accordance with ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including Independence Standards) (the Code) that are relevant to our audit of the financial report in Australia. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Emphasis of matter - Basis of accounting

We draw attention to Note 1 to the financial report, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial report has been prepared for the purpose of fulfilling the Committee Members' financial reporting responsibilities under the Fund's constitution. As a result, the financial report may not be suitable for another purpose. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Committee Members' Responsibility for the Financial Report

The Committee Members' are responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and have determined that the basis of preparation described in Note 1 to the financial report is appropriate to meet the requirements of the members. The Committee Members' responsibility also includes such internal control as the Committee Members determine is necessary to enable the preparation of a financial report that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, The Committee Members' are responsible for assessing the Funds ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters relating to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Fund or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so. The Committee Members' are responsible for overseeing the Entity's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial report is located at the Auditing and Assurance Standards Board website (<http://www.auasb.gov.au/Home.aspx>) at: http://www.auasb.gov.au/auditors_responsibilities/ar4.pdf

This description forms part of our auditor's report.

Notes to and Forming Part of the Financial Statements

For the Year Ended 31 December 2022

1 Statement of Significant Accounting Policies

Statement of Accounting Method

These financial statements are special purpose reports which have been prepared specifically for distribution to the members in accordance with the constitution of the Fund. They have been prepared on a cash basis from the records of the Fund.

The Committee Members have determined that the Fund is not a reporting entity and therefore there is no requirement to apply Australian Accounting Interpretations or other authoritative pronouncements of the Australian Accounting Standards Board in the preparation and presentation of these statements. No regard has been paid to Accounting Standards in the preparation of these reports unless otherwise indicated.

Revenue

Sponsorship and grant revenue is recognised when received.

Expenses

Expenses primarily relate to goods and services of the fund and are incurred when paid.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Revenues and expenses are recognised inclusive of the amount of associated GST. Any GST receipts or payments to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) are recognised on a cash basis.

Cash and term deposits

Cash and term deposits includes cash at bank and deposits held at call with financial institutions. Deposits are considered short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.
